

Atlanta Pet Fair & Conference 2018

Georgia International Convention Center
March 8-11, 2018

Rules & Regulations for Our 4-Legged Friends

While we are here to celebrate our 4-legged friends, please remember to respect our show, the Convention Center, and the people around us by keeping the following rules in mind:

- Dogs should only be on convention center property if they are being used for competitions, in-booth demos, or by a speaker for demonstrations.
- Providers of dogs for your booth demos, lectures or competitions must be registered and wearing their badge for admittance on to Trade Show Floor.
- Dogs may not be walked around the convention center for any purpose other than to be taken to the potty area, back to the holding room, booth, to a contest, or demo.
- The potty area for dogs is located out the front entrance and to the left in the grass area at the Convention Center. Be sure to clean up after your dog!!!

Pet Friendly Hotels

Atlanta Hilton Airport

- Each sleeping room at the Hilton Atlanta Airport Hotel will allow up to 5 dogs per room
- A crate is required for each dog.
- Guests must bring plastic to be placed under all crates and must provide baggies and other sanitation supplies to take clean up after all dogs.

La Quinta Inn & Suites North Atlanta Airport

- Each Sleeping room at the La Quinta Inn & Suites North Atlanta Airport will allow 2 dogs per room up to 50 pounds.
- A crate is required for each dog.
- Guests must bring plastic to be placed under all crates and must provide baggies and other sanitation supplies to take clean up after all dogs.

Produced by:

World Pet Association, Inc.

Producers of SuperZoo, Atlanta Pet Fair & Conference, America's Family Pet Expo and Aquatic Experience
135 W Lemon Avenue • Monrovia, California 91016

Phone: 626 447-2222 / 800 999-7295 • Fax: 626 447-8350 • E-Mail: info@AtlantaPetFair.org • www.AtlantaPetFair.org